May your mornings bring joy and your evenings bring peace.
May your troubles grow few as your blessings increase.

First Reading

Read by Andrew Quinn
A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

The Lord has this to say,
I have loved you with everlasting love and I am constant in my affection for you. I will build you up, and I will protect you in good times and in bad, so be happy and go forth in the dancing of the merry makers. I have plans for you, plans for peace, not disasters, plans to give you a future and a reason for hope. And remember, when you call upon me and come and pray with me, I will hear you. You will seek me and find, when you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you.

The word of the Lord
All - Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Mo Gha Tru (Sung)

Second Reading

Read by Micaela Ward
A reading for the letters of St. Paul

Give yourselves to one another completely- be generous in your giving and make no conditions on these gifts. Love one another fully and constantly. Be humble in your acceptance of your partner's love. Be honest with each other, be thankful for each other's love and strive to develop its richness day by day. Respect each other in every way. Be patient with one another's weakness and accept each other for what you are- and not for what you wish they were.
Communicate constantly with one another; be calm, patient, tolerant and reasonable in your communication. Be capable of good listening. Share with one another good fortune and misfortune alike.
Be compassionate and express your love for one another constantly. Know your limitations and be honest with yourself as you are with one another. Fuse your souls into one and be happy for the love that you have been fortunate to find in one another.

The word of the Lord

FIRST READING

Read by Rachel Ward

A Reading from the Book of Ruth
Wherever you go, I shall go
Wherever you live, I shall live.
Your people shall be my people
And your God will be my God too.

Wherever you die I shall die
And there I shall be buried beside you.
We will be together forever
And our love will be the gift of our lives.
This is the Word of the Lord

SECOND READING

Read by Aimee Ward

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
Be ambitious for the higher gifts. And I am going to show you a way that is better than any of them.
If I have all the eloquence of men or of angels, but speak without love, I am simply a gong booming or a cymbal clashing. If I have the gift of prophecy, understanding all the mysteries there are, and knowing everything, and if I have faith in all its fullness, to move mountains, but without love, then I am nothing at all. If I give away all that I possess, piece by piece, and if I even let them take my body to burn it, but am without love, it will do me no good whatever.

Love is always patient and kind; it is never jealous; love is never boastful or conceited; it is never rude or selfish; it does not take offence, and is not resentful. Love takes no pleasure in other people's sins but delights in the truth; it is always ready to excuse, to trust, to hope, and to endure whatever comes.
Love does not come to an end.
This is the word of the Lord

First Reading

Read by Aoife McLoughlin
A reading from the prophet Jeremiah
The Lord has this to say;
I have loved you with everlasting love and I am constant in my affection for you. I will build you up and I will protect you in good times and in bad, so be happy and go forth in the dancing of the merry makers. I have plans for you; plans for peace, not disaster, plans to give you a future and a reason for hope. And remember, when you call upon me and come and pray with me, I will hear you. You will seek me and find; when you seek me with all your heart, I will be found by you.
The word of the Lord
All - Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Mo ghrá Thú - sung by Gavin Gribben

Second Reading

Read by Sean Tumilty
A reading fom the letters of St. Paul
Give yourselves to one another completely. be generous in your giving and make no conditions on these gifts. Love one another fully and constantly. Be humble in your acceptance of your partner's love. Be honest with each other, be thankful for each other's love and strive to develop its richness day by day. Respect each other in every way. Be patient with one another's weakness and accept each other for what you are- and not for what you wish they were. Communicate constantly with one another; be calm, patient, tolerant and reasonable in your communication. Be capable of good listening. Share with one another good fortune and misfortune alike. Be compassionate and express your love for one another constantly. Know your limitations and be honest with yourself as you are with one another. Fuse your souls into one and be happy for the love that you have been fortunate to find in one another.
The word of the Lord
All - Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Alleluia (Sung)

The Gospel

Priest - The Lord be with you
All - And with your spirit
Priest - A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke
All - Glory to you, Lord
Be compassionate just as your Father is compassionate. Do not judge and you will not be judged; do not condemn and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and there will be gifts for you: a full measure, pressed down, shaken together and over flowing, will be poured onto your lap, because the standard you use will be the standard used for you.
The Gospel of the Lord
All - Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Homily

Rite of Marriage

Priest - Zoë and Stephen, you have come to this church today so that the Lord may seal your love in the presence of the priest, your family and friends. In becoming husband and wife you give yourself to each other for life. You promise to be true and faithful, to be friends to one another and to support each other so that your years together will be the living out in love of the pledge you now make.
Priest - Zoë and Stephen, you are about to celebrate this sacrament. Have you come here of your own free will and choice without compulsion to marry each other?
Both - We have
Priest - Will you love and honour each other in marriage all the days of your life?

Priest - I invite you to declare before God and his Church your consent to become husband and wife.
Stephen - I, Stephen, take you, Zoë, as my wife, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, all the days of my life.
Zoë - I, Zoë, take you, Stephen, as my husband, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, all the days of my life.
Priest - What God joins together man or woman must not separate. May the Lord confirm the consent that you have given and enrich you with his blessings.

Blessing and exchange of the Rings
